Hair Death

Instantly removes and forever destroys objectionable hair, whether upon the hands, face, arms or neck, without discoloration or injury to the most delicate skin. It was for fifty years the secret formula of Erasmus Wilson, acknowledged by physicians as the highest authority and the most eminent dermatologist and hair specialist that ever lived. During his private practice of a lifetime among the nobility and aristocracy of Europe he perfected this recipe. Price, $1 by mail, securely packed. Correspondence confidential. Sole agents for America, Ad-stocks of goods.

Mrs. M. M. Ballard has taken up two stray ponies.

J. P. Batchelder, of Valley Falls, is a visitor to the city.

Mrs. J. E. Platt, of Manhattan, Kas., is visiting in the city.

Ralph Hanna and John Coffey are visitors from Kingfisher.

Hon. C. J. Wrightman was here yesterday from Pawnee.

Baxter Brown is here from the new and dusty town of Santa Fe.

Prof. Buxton has returned from the strip to wash. He got a claim.

E. R. Tucker and Dan Falls were up from Oklahoma City yesterday.

By actual count six drops of rain fell in this city yesterday morning.

A thief entered Brewer's second hand store Thursday and purloined a watch.

Joe Myers and M. A. Murphy represented El Reno at the hub yesterday.

Colonel H. C. Jones, of Ohio, member of the Alva townsie board is in the city.

Rev. William Wimberly has returned from the strip. He captured a choice claim.

Coydell S. Horner, of Wichita have erected the largest building, so far, in Perry.

S. M. Swartz is here from Newton, Kansas, viewing the best town in the southwest.

Miss Stella Overton, a charming young lady from Bloomington, Ill., is in the city.

J. E. Van Voorhis of Springfield, Kan., is the guest of his old friend,
M. G. Turner.

A negro dive on Second street was raided last evening by the police. Two of the inmates were jailed.

Mr. George Jasper, a worthy young man, has been appointed chief clerk in the office of Secretary Lowe.

Miss Cora Slawson, representing the Levison paper firm of St. Louis, is in the city drumming up business.

Norman was represented in the city yesterday by Messrs. George Smith, W. L. Chapman and A. J. Mosely.

Chief George Taylor has been offered $500 for his Perry lot. Officer Rinehart sold his lot yesterday for $700.

G. S. Livingston has gone to Perry to practice law. He came here from Georgia as a member of townsie board No. 2.

Bon Ashton, of the Democrat-Warrior of Chandler, was in the city last night and paid THE LEADER office a pleasant call.

The insane woman found prowling on the streets Thursday is named Mary A. Crowell. She will be sent to the territorial asylum.

H. T. Buckner of Cambridge, Mass., is in the city. This is his first trip outside the Bay state and he is truly amazed at the immensity of the world.

The stories to the effect that the land office officials at Perry had been relieved and that the military is in charge of the offices are fakes of the rankiest kind.

G. M. Nix's horse ran away on Oklahoma avenue yesterday morning and created quite a stir. The buggy to which the animal was attached was badly damaged.

There are some thieves who make it a business to board trains when they stop at the Santa Fe depot and steal the grips of passengers whenever they find an opportunity.

Jack Love has been appointed sheriff of Woodward county. He will make a good one for he has lots of nerve and backbone—something needed in that Western county.

The nomination of Henry W. Scott as associate justice of the Oklahoma supreme court has been confirmed by the United States senate. Judge Scott will put on the judicial ermine the first of next month.

Senator C. J. Wrightman, who was over from Paynece yesterday, says his new town has a population of 700 and is fairly booming. According to his statement the Indian allotments are not a serious drawback to the county.

Deputy Sheriff Lacey, of Oklahoma City, passed through the city yesterday, having in his custody Harry Corey, who is charged with bastardy by a young girl of Edmond. He strongly denies the charge and will fight the case.

Miss Julia Snyder, a friend of Mr. and Mrs. William Lewis, returned to her home in Denison, Texas, last night. She had been to the strip and secured a claim, but "cannot file for two or three weeks, her number being 6343.

Henry R. Stow, of London, England, is in the city. Stow is a typical cockney, and hardly knows what to make of the race for lands last Saturday.

"Rich, bloomin' country, this," says Stow, "why damme the people live on dirt." Stow has been to Perry.

Colonel Tom Dingle came down from Perry yesterday to interview Cal Orner and Major Dickerson regarding the buying of new song books for the Salvation Army at Perry. These three gentlemen are doing much to civilize the lot contestants of Perry by their eternal renditions of timely hymns.
Dingle comes from southwest Missouri and is a vocalist of merit.
